Sponsorship packages with Encephalitis International

The Encephalitis Conference is well-attended, well-received and well-reviewed. Sponsorship is an affordable way to raise awareness of your organisation to a targeted group of medical and research professionals whilst supporting our life-saving work.

We can also ensure exposure to an unprecedented number of multi-disciplinary delegates interested in encephalitis and who work in the fields of neurology, neuropsychiatry, neuropsychology, epidemiology, infectious diseases and associated fields from across the globe.

Digital and Marketing Packages:

Brochure Advertising:

Communicate your message to an anticipated 550 delegates. The Conference brochure is the primary resource for conference delegates, available both in hard copy for in-person attendees and digitally for virtual attendees. Ad opportunities allow those purchasing the opportunity to showcase their organisation and product offering.

Ad rates:

- Half page: £500
- Full page: £1,000
- Inside front or back cover: £2,000
- Outside back cover: £2,500

Email advertising:

Get your message in front of Encephalitis Conference attendees. Sent to all registered participants before, during and after the event, this series of emails provides logistical information to attendees to help them know key details at the conference and is a great opportunity to get in front of an anticipated 550 delegates.

Symposia Packages

£2500 (Plus VAT)

This year we are offering the opportunity for you to host a symposium at the annual Encephalitis Conference.

In 2025, the annual Encephalitis Conference welcomed our biggest ever audience and reach – an increase of 4% in delegate numbers (530 delegates) and 13% of countries (80 countries) in attendance.

Details for the symposium opportunities are as follows:

- In order to take advantage of this opportunity you must also hold a Conference sponsorship package.
- The symposium can be on a topic jointly agreed by the sponsor and Encephalitis International, including diagnosis, treatment, vaccination and patient care.
- Encephalitis International will provide a room at the Royal College of Physicians for up to 50 people.
- Encephalitis International can help advertise the symposia as part of the Conference programme.
- Attendees of any symposia must register to attend the Conference itself.
- Speakers and the format for the symposium must be arranged by the sponsor.
- The symposium will be an in-person only event.

Symposia date/times available:

- Breakfast Session Day 1:
8.15am – 9.00am
- Breakfast Session Day 2:
8.15am – 9.00am
- Lunch Session Day 1:
